

CONSTANT REMEMBRANCE

- Pujya Sri Ramchandraji Maharaj

Mere Consciousness of God cures many of the evils of the mind and removes difficulties from our path. We have thus to become conscious of God for the most part of the day during all our worldly activities. We must remain in touch with the idea of God in all phases of our mental and physical activities. We must feel ourselves connected with the Supreme Power every moment with an unbroken chain of thought during all our activities. If we think that while doing a work we are really serving one or the other of God's creatures and not our own purpose we are all along following the path of service although we are outwardly busy with our usual routine of work. The remembrance of everything should merge into the remembrance of one — the ultimate resounding all through in every particle of his being. This may be known as complete annihilation of self. If one develops this state he should be considered as an embodiment of devotion and prayer. Every thought of his will be synonymous with that of the Master. He will never turn towards anything that is against the Divine will. His mind will always be directed towards that which is the Master's command.
