

DETERMINATION

What I want is that all of you rise as sun of Spirituality!

But how is it possible? And when that is possible?

When you orbit in such a way as your movement be direct.

How to find this orbit ?How to move direct?

By keeping the destination in full view.

How to remember the destination?

By becoming one with it.

And when can a person be one with that?

When you lose yourself.

And how to lose oneself?

By bearing no other thought in the heart than that.

And how is that possible?

By Practice.

How practice is possible?

Through love and interest.

How love and interest can be cultivated?

Through determination.

How determination is possible?

When we grid our loins to sacrifice our pleasures and to shake off idleness.
